

Privacy Policy

We respect your privacy and strive to provide a safe and transparent experience. This Privacy Policy outlines how we handle your data while using our website.

Data Collection

No Cookies (by us): Our website does not use cookies or any tracking technologies directly.

No Personal Data Storage: We do not collect, process, or store any personal information on our servers.

Use of Google Maps API

To enhance your experience, we integrate the Google Maps API to display routes from nearby airports to our holiday accommodations. This involves:

Data Collected by Google: Google may gather information like your IP address and location to ensure accurate directions.

Third-Party Responsibility: Any data collected through Google Maps is managed by Google under their Privacy Policy: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>.

Use of Google Analytics

To improve our website and better understand how visitors interact with it, we now use Google Analytics. This involves:

Data Collected by Google Analytics: Google Analytics may collect information such as your IP address, device type, browser, and browsing behavior (e.g., pages visited, time spent on the site).

Third-Party Responsibility: This data is processed by Google under their Privacy Policy: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>.

Anonymization: We have enabled IP anonymization to ensure your IP address is not stored in full.

Your Choices

Our Website: Since we do not store any data directly, no privacy settings are required on our end.

Google Maps and Google Analytics: You can manage your preferences for Google services, including opting out of data collection, through your Google account or by installing the Google Analytics Opt-Out Browser Add-on: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

Contact Information

If you have any questions or concerns about this Privacy Policy, the integration of Google Maps, or the use of Google Analytics, feel free to reach out to us at info@caleton.ch.
